Workshop

Research is getting the top most priority in higher education today. Educational Institutions, an abode of Knowledge is expected to conduct genuine and high-quality research which has an impact on the society. Teaching and research complement each other; they should be synthesized so as to bring in relevance to the academic activity in the institutions. Research is a vanguard in social work education and fresh knowledge and updated issues should be developed from time to time on management issues. Academic institutions are imbibing the 'research culture' and research activities as an evidence of intervention in the field. For undergoing high-quality research and writing good research papers, one requires collecting, interpret and logically document the information. The art of drawing coherent conclusions, supported by appropriate research tools and reference citation is vital for quality research work. The recent innovations in statistical applications, availability of statistical software's allow scholars/researchers to take a more complex test, multilevel and dynamic models.
